In this hilarious satire of musical theatre, one story is turned into five different mini musicals, each written in the distinctive style of a different master of the form:

- Rodgers & Hammerstein
- Stephen Sondheim
- Jerry Herman
- Andrew Lloyd Webber
- Kander & Ebb

From Sondheim's tortured artistic genius to Andrew Lloyd Webber's rock musical, don't miss this delightful comic valentine to musical theatre!!

On a Tuesday night, shortly before Christmas 1956, Johnny Cash, Jerry Lee Lewis, Carl Perkins and Elvis Presley gathered at Sun Records in Memphis, Tennessee. This was their only performance, a cultural flashpoint that caught rock 'n' roll at the moment of creation. Million Dollar Quartet brings that legendary December night to life with an irresistible tale of broken promises, secrets, betrayal, and hit songs like Blue Suede Shoes, Walk the Line, Sixteen Tons, Hound Dog, and Great Balls of Fire.

A Delicious Comedy.

Della makes cakes, not judgment calls – those she leaves to her husband, Tim. But when the girl she helped raise comes back home to North Carolina to get married, and the fiancé is actually a fiancée, Della's life gets turned upside down. She can't really make a cake for such a wedding, can she? For the first time in her life, Della has to think for herself. Faith, family, and frosting collide in this timely new play from the writer of NBC's This is Us.

"Brilliant... Powerful and meaningful... great writing."

I HATE HAMLET

BY PAUL RUDNICK

To Be...or Not To Be?

In Paul Rudnick's hilarious dramatic comedy, when television star Andrew Rally moves back to New York and finds himself cast as Hamlet, nothing seems right. With lucrative offers of shallow television shows, self-doubt, fear of the greatest of roles, and a girlfriend who won't have sex with him, it takes the supernatural intervention of the ghost of Andrew's apartment's former resident—the legendary John Barrymore—to help Andrew confront the challenges of life on stage (and in the bedroom).

About Ubu's Other Shoe & Staged Readings

In 2004, Michael Siebrass directed a staged reading of Gore Vidal's thought-provoking political satire, The Best Man, at SLO Little Theatre. 20 years and 119 plays later, we are thrilled to celebrate the 20th Anniversary of this challenging, thought-provoking and ground-breaking series of shows called Ubu's Other Shoe!

Our staged reading series is named after the infamous trilogy of plays written by Alfred Jarry (Ubu Roi) that were banned from the stage after riots erupted on opening night. This exciting series of shows exists to offer actors, directors and audience members an opportunity to experience incredible plays that do not necessarily fit into our regular mainstage season.

Thank you, Michael, for taking us on this theatrical journey.

It's our 20th Anniversary Season!

Join us for a Pre-Show Opening Night Celebration
Friday, September 20, 2024 – 6 pm*

Help us celebrate Artistic Director Michael Siebrass and 20 years of Ubu with the directors, actors and team members who have made it all possible.
